Chan Treading the GST Path – VII

Place of supply of Services

Author: G. Natarajan

1.0 CGST and SGST is leviable on intra state supply of goods and/or services (Sec. 7 of the CGST / SGST Act) and IGST is leviable on all inter-state supplies of goods / services (Sec.4 of the IGST Act). Section 3 of the IGST Act defines supplies of goods and/or services in the course of inter State trade or commerce and Section 3 A of the IGST Act defines supplies of goods and/or services in the course of intra State trade or commerce.

1.1 As per section 2 (2) of the IGST Act, words and expressions not defined in this Act shall have the meaning assigned to them in the CGST Act. But there is no provision in the CGST / SGST Act, to the effect that the words and expressions not defined in these Acts, but defined in IGST Act, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the IGST Act. In the absence of such provision, how to find out what is "intra-State supply" for the purpose of levy of CGST / SGST?

1.2 Section 2 (44) of the CGST / SGST Act defines "export of service" and one of the condition thereunder is that the place of supply of service is outside India. In the absence of any guidelines in the Act to determine such place of supply or in the absence of any provision for applying the place of supply as defined under the IGST Act for the purposes of CGST / SGST Acts, how to determine the place of supply for the purposes of CGST / SGST Acts?

1.3 It is observed that under the Rule making power contained in Section 132 of the CGST / SGST Act, rules can be made, inter alia, for place of supply of goods or services. Instead of having a separate Place of Supply Rules for CGST / SGST purposes, why not the provisions of the IGST Act in this regard be made available to CGST / SGST?

2.0 Be that as it may, let us compare the present provisions of the Place of Provision of Service Rules, 2012 under service tax, to the provisions of Section 6 of the IGST Act, dealing with place of supply of services, so that the similarities and significant variations between both the provisions could be noted.
